Summary

As a senior sales development representative at Reward Gateway, I help businesses create a more engaged and productive workforce by offering employee engagement solutions. I have over four years of experience in sales and recruitment, working with clients across various industries and sectors. I have excellent communication and interpersonal skills, and I enjoy motivating and supporting my team to achieve our goals. I am passionate about employee engagement and wellbeing, and I believe in the mission and values of Reward Gateway. I am always looking for new opportunities to learn and grow in my field of expertise.
